

COCOA

treasures

Luxury scarves, lingerie, gifts and accessories for the fashion industry in designs inspired by 17th, 18th and 19th century artworks, tapestries and fabrics.

Cocoa

Cocoa Couture was established in Cheltenham in 1970 designing beautiful, individual wedding gowns. In 1990 trained fashion designer Cara Wagstaff took over the business and her love for antique textiles as well as her understanding of modern couture transformed Cocoa into a unique French inspired boutique that has attracted ladies from all over the world including celebrities and royalty! More information on wedding gowns can be found at www.cocoacouture.co.uk

Cocoa Treasures

Cara's love of antique artworks, tapestries and fabrics from the 17th, 18th and 19th Century has led her to expand out from wedding gowns and develop her own range of individual fabrics and silks to create unique scarves, lingerie and accessories – The Cocoa Treasures Collection.

All the designs are printed locally in the Cotswolds in the heart of the UK on the finest pure silks and hand finished by herself and team of seamstresses. Her designs are based on images from her own collection of artworks but she is happy to take commissions if you have your own artwork of family treasures. Please contact Cara if you would like further information on commissions.

Designer Square Scarves

Our standard sizes and popular materials are listed below but we are able to custom sizes and use other materials from our range. We can create scarves from any of our designs that may be shown on other products, so if you have seen a design but its not shown opposite we would be able to supply it.

Standard Scarf sizes:

- 135 x 135cm A huge scarf that can be worn as a shawl, sarong or generally as a cover up.
- 95 x 95cm This is a traditional size headscarf inspired by Bridgette Bardot, Audrey Hepburn and 50's glamour.
- 45 x 45cm The smaller size scarf is perfect for a neckerchief or as an accessory to your handbag.

All sizes are available in either Silk Twill, Silk Satin and Wool & Silk
